FOE DELEGATES WILL SIGN PACT

German Envoy Asserts Nation is in No Position to Reject Allied Conditions.

CHAIRMAN MAY RESIGN

Sharp Differences Have Arisen Among the Members of the Berlin Peace Delegation Over the Question of Accepting Terms.

Versailles, May 19.—A member of the German delegation with the rank of councillor of legation, who returned recently from Berlin, made this declaration: "We will sign the peace treaty despite all, because we will be hacked to pieces if we return to Berlin without signing."

Paris, May 19.—Sharp differences have arisen among the members of the German peace delegation over the peace treaty, and Count von Brockdorff-Rantzau, head of the plenipotentiaries, may return to Berlin to discuss with the Ebert government whether the terms presented by the Allied and associated governments shall be signed. He has reached Spa and conferred with technical experts.

A majority of the delegates are asserted to be against submission to the terms, and so marked has become the division between the opposing factions that it is quite probable Count von Brockdorff-Rantzau will not agree to remain a party to the negotiations.

Count Asks to Be Relieved. Unofficial advices from Spa are to the effect that the count already has asked to be relieved of his task. The departure of the head of the German delegation will not necessarily cause an interruption of the negotiations, however.

The Independent Socialists of Germany are still in favor of signing the peace treaty, in the face of strong opposition on the part of the non-Socialist supporters of the government.

The failure of the Hungarian delegates to arrive at St. Germain and the uncertainty as to conditions in Hungary are holding up the presentation of the treaty to be offered the Austrians for signature.

Austrian Treaty Ready Next Week.

Paris, May 19.—The Austrian peace treaty, according to indications, will not be ready for presentation before the latter part of this week. It is understood the failure of Hungarian delegates to arrive and the uncertainty regarding conditions there caused a considerable redraft of portions of the document concerning overlapping questions in the former dual monarchy.

The Havas agency says it understands the Big Four has decided to postpone for the present publication of the terms of the peace treaty with Germany.

TO PUSH DRY LEGISLATION

Prohibition Leaders to Seek Enforcement Law Before July 1.

Washington, May 19.—Efforts to procure the enactment by July 1 of legislation necessary for the enforcement of wartime prohibition and national prohibition under the constitutional amendment are to be made by prohibition leaders in the Senate. Senator Sheppard of Texas announced on his return to Washington that a bill was being prepared by the Anti-Saloon League of America and would be introduced in the Senate both by himself and Senator Jones of Washington, another prohibition leader.

COURT PUTS BAN ON PICKETS

Injunction Bars Striking Chicago Bakers From Guarding Shops.

Chicago, May 19.—An injunction forbidding picketing was issued by Judge Charles M. Foell, in the circuit court of Cook county, against the bakers' and confectioners' international workers of America.

It forbids members of the union, who are on strike against night work, to even walk back and forth in front of the bakeries or to remain in the neighborhood. The action was brought against the act of picketing as constituting a violation of the anti-boycott law.

TO STUDY FLYING IN EUROPE

U. S. Experts Will Develop Aviation for Civil Uses.

Washington, May 19.—Assistant Secretary of War Benedict Crowell and a number of military and civil aviation experts will leave for Europe this month to study possibilities of developing the science of aviation along the lines of civilian usage. Secretary Baker announced that the party would sail from New York May 24 on the transport Mount Vernon.

Kellogg Leaves Frisco Call.

San Francisco, May 19.—F. W. Kellogg retired as publisher of the San Francisco Call and Post and was succeeded by John Francis Neylan, former chairman of the state board of control, Mr. Kellogg announced here.

GENERAL E. H. CROWDER

Has No Intention of Resigning From the Army.

Provost Marshal General E. H. Crowder, under fire for his administration of courtmartial, wishes to appear before any congressional committees investigating his conduct and has no intention of resigning from the army, he cabled Secretary of War N. D. Baker. General Crowder is now in Cuba, but will start for Washington soon.

FEDERAL COURT ACTS

Refuses to Dismiss New York Brewing Case.

Company Seeks Injunction to Prevent Officials From Enforcing War-time Statute.

New York, May 19.—Federal Judge A. N. Hand denied motions made on behalf of the government asking for dismissal of the injunction suit brought by the Jacob Hoffman Brewing company for the purpose of restraining federal officials from performing their duties in enforcing the prohibition laws of the United States.

Without giving an opinion on the constitutionality of the wartime prohibition law, Judge Hand held that the suit "is not against the United States and may be entertained against the United States attorney because it affects the right of property and because the complaint, if his contentions be sound on the merits, has no adequate remedy at law."

Ample jurisdiction, he continued, is shown over the acting collector of internal revenue, who he held is without authority to define an intoxicant.

Will Not Try to Stop Brewing.

Washington, May 19.—No action will be taken by the internal revenue bureau or the Department of Justice to stop brewing of beer with 24 percent alcohol following decision of the Federal district court in New York that it has jurisdiction to consider the case pending before it, officials stated tonight.

NORTHWEST FUEL DEPOSITS

Two Dakotas and Montana Have Vast Natural Resources.

Minneapolis, May 19.—One-third of the total fuel resources of the United States lies almost undisturbed in the great lignite fields of the Northwest, declared O. P. Hood, chief mechanical engineer of the United States Bureau of Mines, who reached Minneapolis and St. Paul after a three weeks' inspection of the lignite districts of North and South Dakota and eastern Montana.

Mr. Hood and a party of engineers sent out by Van H. Manning, secretary of the Bureau of Mines, have been seeking a location for a semi-experimental plant for extracting by-products from lignite and making the residue into briquettes for heating use.

LAND BANK LOANING MONEY

Farmers of the Northwest Are Borrowing From Government.

St. Paul, May 19.—Farmers of the Northwest borrowed $28,564,700 from the government on long time first mortgages, through the Federal Land bank of St. Paul, since its establishment, according to the monthly statement of the Farm Loan board in Washington.

The St. Paul bank stands sixth in the list of Federal Land banks of the country in the amounts given out during the month. The Federal Land bank of Omaha leads in amount of loans closed, totaling $3,007,200. Houston runs a close second, with $1,500,540, and Spokane third, with $1,390,600.

Oregon Editor Dies.

Portland, Ore., May 19.—W. L. Kearns, 53 years old, marine editor of the Portland Telegram, died here after the big navy dirigible had completed its last trial flight before starting for St. Johns, Newfoundland, via Halifax. In the forward seat are

N C 3 FOUND SEVEN MILES FROM U. S. NAVAL BASE

Business Paralysis Continues in Winnipeg Because of Strike

(By United Press) Winnipeg, May 19.—The local branch of the railway trainmen voted late yesterday to join the general strike which has overwhelmed Winnipeg. No action will be taken, however, until a vote is taken on the entire system to make it official. The city was quiet today. Orderly crowds walked the streets. Bottled milk was being delivered today, and bread depots have been established throughout the city. Thomas Deacon president of the Manitoba Iron works, has closed his plant and has gone to California. This message is being sent over the only private wire in operation. Commercial telegraph offices are closed. The only other means of communication is by automobile or courier to border towns. Apparently the government will not interfere unless bloodshed or rioting furnishes the incentive for action.

Austrian and Allied Delegates Exchange Credentials

(By United Press) St. Germain, France, May 19.—Austrian and allied peace delegates exchanged credentials here today.

German Delegates Return to Versailles

(By United Press) Versailles, May 19.—The German delegation returned today from Spa and Berlin.

No Word Received From British Flyers

(By United Press) London, May 19.—The air ministry had no word from the British flyer, Harry Hawker late today.

CITY MILK PLANT IS URGED

Chicago Officer to Ask Municipal Distribution to Cut Price.

Chicago, May 19.—Angered at the increased price of milk to 14 cents a quart because of increased wages granted to milk wagon drivers in settlement of their strike here, Dr. John Dill Robertson, city health commissioner, announced that he will ask the city council to take action for municipal distribution of milk so as to reduce the price.

Car of C-5 and Commander Who Was Confident at Start of Trial Flight to Newfoundland That Navy Dirigible Could Cross Ocean

This photograph of the car of the C-5 was taken at Montauk Point, L. I., just after the big navy dirigible had completed its last trial flight before starting for St. Johns, Newfoundland, via Halifax. In the forward seat are

(By United Press) Washington, May 19.—The sea-plane NC-3 missing since Saturday was sighted seven miles from Ponta Del Gada at 12:10 Washington time, the navy department was advised today. The message said she was proceeding by her own power. It did not say whether she was flying or on the water.

Trans-Atlantic Flight Abandoned to Search Missing N C-3

(By United Press)

Washington, May 19.—The N. C. 4 has been ordered to join in the search for Commander Towers and the lost N. C. 3 the navy department was officially advised today. All destroyers available west of Ponta Del Gada have been ordered to join the organized search. This means the Trans-Atlantic flight is abandoned temporarily at least. The N. C. 3 has been missing since early Saturday. Naval vessels have been searching continuously for the plane. The crew of the N. C. 1 was rescued Saturday. They are none the worse for wear after drifting three hours on the sea. Forty-eight hours drifting on the sea, it was feared here, will probably have so damaged the N. C. 3 that she will be unable to resume the flight even if found.

British Plane Attempts Trans-Atlantic Flight

(By United Press)

London, May 19.—A vigilant watch was maintained along the western coast of Ireland today for the Sopwith D. I plane in which Harry D. Hawker and Lieutenant Commander McKenzie Grieve started from St. John's New Foundland in an attempt to fly across the Atlantic. They left at 1:51 New York time Sunday and should be sighted off Ireland this morning. If they are not sighted it is unlikely they will ever be heard from again, since Hawker dropped the entire lower rigging of his plane when he got off the ground. This would make it impossible for him to alight on the land, and if forced down in the ocean, the plane would immediately sink.

Congress Convened At Noon Today

BY L. C. MARTIN, (United Press Staff Correspondent.)

Washington May 19.—The sixty-sixth congress opened for business promptly at noon today. Strange faces at doors and on the floors gave evidence of the change in its political complexion. Republicans are in the majority in the house for the first time since 1911, and in the senate since 1913. Bales of bills were unloaded immediately in both houses. One of the first was for the repeal of the luxury taxes.

GRAVE CHARGES MADE

Viscount Uchida Deplores Japanese Press Comment.

Foreign Minister Says Attitude of Friendly Nations Has Been Unjustly Attacked.

Tokio, May 19.—The following statement has been given out by Viscount Uchida, the Japanese foreign minister:

"The recent development of the international situation has given rise to diplomatic questions of great moment, the satisfactory settlement of which can only be arrived at in an atmosphere of good will and mutual confidence among the powers concerned.

"To attain this desirable end, each nation should be guided by unbiased judgment in its estimate of the conduct of foreign nations. While careful not to lose sight of its own standpoint, it should not forget to appreciate the standpoint of other peoples and to seek to harmonize the special positions from which those positions are viewed by each party.

"Suspicion or prejudice not warranted by the actual facts is deplorable, and is dangerous at the present moment when the whole structure of international relations is in process of reorganization, looking to the establishment of a lasting peace.

"My attention has been called to articles in the press, both at home and abroad, which, viewed in this light, are much to be regretted. Grave charges have been made in some Japanese papers against the attitude of friendly nations in China, Siberia or Korea, without any evidence in support of those allegations and without regard to the serious consequences which may follow from them, compromising the position of this country."

REAR ADMIRAL DOYLE

Commander of North Pacific Fleet May Retire Soon.

Rear Admiral Robert M. Doyle, U. S. N., commanding the North Pacific fleet, is en route from Hawaii to San Francisco and from there will go to New York and Washington to ask retirement, according to a letter received by a son.

GENERAL ZELAYA DEAD

Former Nicaraguan President Passes Away at New York

During His Terms of Office He Had Frequent Disputes With the Leading Nations.

New York, May 19.—General Joseph Santos Zelaya, president of the republic of Nicaragua for 16 turbulent years, died at his home here after a long illness, it was learned.

Zelaya styled himself "The Lion of Central America," but everywhere, in the latter years of his regime, except in his own publications, he was referred to as "The Wolf of Nicaragua." His administration of Nicaraguan affairs was marked with excesses of various kinds, and frequent disputes with the United States, Germany, and England. At one time he said, "I ridicule the United States, laugh at Germany, and spit on England."

Some of the things he was charged with doing were:

Making every industry in the country a monopoly, and sharing in the profits.

Excluding the non-sectarian Bible society.

Opening the mail and delaying the official telegrams of American diplomats.

When his grip on Nicaragua was broken, and he left the country, he came to the United States and for some years he had been living quietly in New York.

CHILDREN TO GIVE MILLION

Washington, May 19.—American school children, through the Junior Red Cross, will donate $1,000,000 this year to the relief of child victims of the war overseas, it was announced at American Red Cross headquarters. One of the first steps will be to undertake the support of the Red Cross home for war orphans on Mount Zion, Jerusalem, where children orphaned by the war, whatever their nationality, are sheltered.

EXPLAIN SMYRNA INCIDENT

Athens, May 19.—Colonel Zafiris, commander of the Greek troops which landed at Smyrna, has issued a proclamation declaring that the occupation was made by Greece in concert with her allies in order to guarantee the security of the population. The occupation, the proclamation said, was made without anticipating the decision of the peace congress.

FAVORS SINKING ENEMY VESSELS

Rear Admiral Benson Considers Surrendered German War-ships Useless.

DANIELS COMES HOME

Secretary of the Navy Returns From Europe and Declares That It Has Not Yet Been Determined What to Do With the Ships.

New York, May 19.—Upon his return on the transport Mount Vernon, Secretary of the Navy Daniels said it has not yet been determined what will be done with the German battleships, but that there is a strong feeling, particularly in England that they should be sunk.

The Secretary quoted a statement by Rear Admiral William S. Benson, chief of American naval operations in European waters, that they should be sent to the bottom as "a great moral lesson." The advantage of such a course, he said it is generally believed, would be to make the future naval programs of nations easier to adjust.

French sentiment, Mr. Daniels said, is divided on the question. The Secretary declared that if the United States, for instance, received any of the German vessels it would be found that we had no equipment to make ammunition and torpedoes such as would be required for them and that by the time the machinery was set up the ships would be obsolete.

Soldiers Want to Get Home.

Mr. Daniels said:

"The uppermost thought in the mind and heart of all our soldiers across the sea is a burning desire to come home. And we are bringing them back rapidly—289,000 were brought back in April; more than that number will be transported to the United States in May and in June. This will leave about 400,000 American troops in Europe July 1, and there will be facilities to return all our soldiers as soon as the needs of the country will release men from whatever array of occupation may be required."

He declared the navy's building program will be carried out in detail unless interfered with by the provisions of the League of Nations. "With a League of Nations," he said, "there would be no competitive building program."

Regarding the merchant marine situation, Mr. Daniels declared while the United States should have facilities which will permit it to trade with any country, the situation is not one for the Secretary of the Navy to discuss, but is the concern of the Shipping board and Congress.

ATTACKS LEAGUE COVENANT

Federal Judge Declares It Will Not Prevent War.

Kansas City, May 19.—That the League of Nations in its present proposed form will not accomplish the prevention of war, will bring complications and disturbances destructive of permanent peace, will be a departure from time-honored and substantial American policies and tradition, will endanger national safety and is violative of the spirit and letter of the constitution of the United States, was the declaration of Judge Arba S. Van Valkenburgh of the United States district court in an address before the Kansas City Bar association.

ARE GIVEN HONOR MEDALS

French Honor Two Sisters of Secretary Lansing.

Paris, May 19.—The Official Journal prints the names of those on whom the new decoration, "The Medal of French Gratitude," has been conferred. Miss Emma S. Lansing and Miss Katherine T. ## PUBLICITY BUREAU NEEDED IN PARIS

NEWS FROM THE PEACE CON-FERENCE HAS BEEN CONFUSING
AND CONTRADICTORY.

NOT CORRESPONDENTS' FAULT

Lacking Direct and Authentic Information, They Have Been Compelled to

Who Would Talk.

By EDWARD B. CLARK.

Washington.—Things political in Washington would have a clearer field today if there had been an authorized, properly conducted publicity bureau in Paris.

Democrats and Republicans alike would have said things and done things which probably they would not have said and done if there had been a clear understanding of just what was going on in the French capital in connection with the negotiations for a peace and a league of nations.

It is one of the first rules of newspaper men not to "knock the news," but there is not a newspaper man in this town who has not been walking for some time in a haze of doubts, uncertainties and perplexities concerning just what is happening in Versailles and on the Quai d'Orsay.

So far as the memory of the older newspaper men in Washington runs, there has been no such tangle of information and misinformation since the Spanish war as that which has marked the news field of Paris within the past few months. What the trouble has been, has been guessed at scores of times, but finally there seems to have come a sort of a clear understanding of just what has happened.

Stories Flatly Contradictory.

Within a short time the cables from the French capital sent on the same days and for printing in the same newspapers have brought stories directly contradictory in their nature, but all of which bore the appearance at least of being trustworthy. What was a poor congressman, Democrat or Republican, going to do when he saw one story upholding his

The class was instructed by Mrs. A. E. Thayer who has now graduated 39 trained teachers for Sunday school work.

Five of the members of the class graduating last night were from the Baptist church and four were from the Methodist church.

The class colors were green and white and they were very tastefully used in the decorations of the church.

An original class song composed by Mrs. Thayer was sung by the class. Rev. E. A. Cooke delivered the address of the evening.

JOBS FOR 10,000 FIGHTERS

Knights of Columbus Employment Bureaus Solving a Pressing Problem.

More than ten thousand former soldiers and sailors are now working at jobs obtained for them by the Knights of Columbus, co-operating with the United States Labor Department. Ten times ten thousand soldiers and sailors will probably find jobs through the Knights within the next twelve months, because this organization is conducting more than seventeen hundred employment bureaus especially for this service.

The Government, recently, went on record commending the Knights of Columbus work in this direction.

To inform employers regarding the men returning from Europe who desire and are eligible for jobs, the Knights have instituted a card system that covers every avenue of information.

These cards, issued by the K. of C. committee on war activities, co-operating with the United States employment service, call for detailed information regarding the soldier, his qualifications, experience, etc. He is asked to state where he worked before and where he now desires to work. The cards are presented to returning troops while at sea, giving the men ample time to fill them out.

Before the soldiers embark on this side the cards are collected by the Knights of Columbus secretaries, who forward them to headquarters at New Haven, where they are sorted and then sent to the K. of C. man in charge of the job-finding service in the locality where the soldier desires employment.

In this way through its 1,700 councils, through its secretaries engaged in transport work, and its secretaries at naval stations and home camps, the Knights will bring to the problem of returned defenders a well organized and efficient machinery.

In home camps secretaries have been co-operating with the Department of Labor and with the Government's Employment Service, aiding in the replacement in civilian occupation of many hundreds of soldiers. The men returning from overseas have not had the same opportunity to get in touch with employers as the men stationed at home.

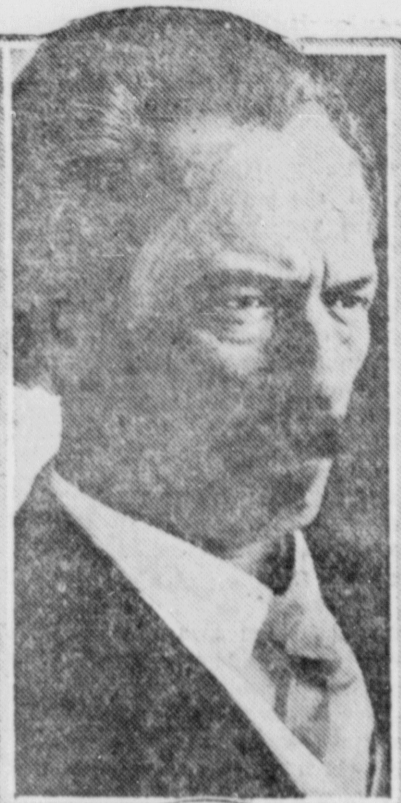

Through the Knights of Columbus about one-third of all applicants for work are placed in positions within one week after filing an application.

Frederick P. Raynham, English aviator, and Hawker's rival for the $50,000 prize, attempted to take off immediately in an endeavor to beat the latter, but misfortune intervened. His plane was wrecked, and he and his navigator, Charles W. F. Morgan, were injured.

Hawker, who decided to risk everything when he heard of the arrival of the United States Navy's seaplane NC-4 at Horta, expects to make the trip to the Irish coast in 20 hours.

TWO CAMPAIGNS ON FOR WORLD HEALTH

MAJOR GENERAL GORGAS IS NOW IN SOUTH AMERICA TO WIPE OUT YELLOW FEVER.

PROPOSITION SEEMS SIMPLE

Plague Is Spread Only by Mosquito. Bite—Surgeon General Blue Planning to Eradicate Malarial Fever and to Conserve Child Life.

By EDWARD B. CLARK.

Washington—Two great campaigns are being directed from Washington to bring health into the world.

Major Gen. William C. Gorgas, who recently retired from the army after having gone through the war as surgeon general of the United States, is today in South America planning to wipe yellow fever off the face of the disease map, eradicating it so that "Yellow Jack" cannot again appear to plague man.

Rupert Blue, surgeon general of the public health service, is engaged in a campaign to put the people of the United States on a plane of health never before reached. He is to ask for an appropriation of $2,000,000 to put his campaign into operation.

William C. Gorgas as a colonel of the medical corps was in charge of the health work on the Isthmus of Panama. He spent ten years in the service of the government in that far southern country. He was there for three years before the army engineers took over the work of canal construction, and during the seven years that they were at work he labored side by side with them in making Panama the healthiest place on earth.

It might be asked how it is possible for a man to kill yellow fever beyond the possibility of resurrection. In reality it is a simple proposition, so far as it appears merely as a proposition. Yellow fever is communicated by a mosquito of the stegomyia species. This mosquito can bite all the people it wants to without imparting yellow fever provided it has not previously bitten a yellow fever patient and absorbed the virus into its system.

Now, therefore, it follows naturally that if there are no yellow fever patients for stegomyia to bite, it cannot get the yellow fever virus into its system and consequently cannot transmit it to any person whom it subsequently may bite.

How Yellow Fever Spreads.

In South America there are three places where yellow fever exists. The way that the disease spreads to remote sections is this: A mosquito which has bitten a yellow fever patient bites somebody who is going to travel. The symptoms of the fever do not appear for some days, and so the bitten person may be many hundreds of miles from the place where the mosquito got in its work before the disease develops.

Then another mosquito bites this sick person, and then bites somebody else. In this way the disease is spread. General Gorgas is visiting the three yellow fever districts in South America with a view to making arrangements to stamp out the fever in each place and to see that the work is continued until every mosquito which has any virus in its system is dead. Mosquitoes are not long-lived.

When there are no more yellow fever cases and when the last mosquito which has bitten a patient has passed to the great beyond, there can be no more yellow fever in the world. Such is the work in which the former surgeon general of the United States army and the cleaner-up of the Isthmus of Panama is engaged today.

Public Health Service Plans.

Surgeon General Rupert Blue does not claim that it will be possible to put all the diseases with which man is afflicted out of the running, but apparently he believes that thousands upon thousands of cases of sickness can be done away with and further cases avoided if common sense in the ways of prevention is put to account.

A writer on this subject of disease in America says that the public health service estimates there are from 6,000,000 to 8,000,000 cases of malarial fever a year in this country, and it is a well-known fact that malaria is a preventable disease. In certain sections of the United States malaria has been completely wiped out, and communities which were enervated to a point almost past working for a living have been rebuilt, rejuvenated, and made healthy and happy. An extension of the campaign it is believed will do away with one of the worst pests which afflict this country.

Another intention of the public health service is to do what it can for child conservation. When one takes into consideration the fact that about one-fifth of the deaths are of children not yet two years of age, the necessity of such a campaign easily is understood. Many of these deaths can be prevented if children are given the proper kind of care and the proper kind of food. Education of the parents is necessary in many instances.

The things which have been enumerated are only a small part of the health program of Surgeon General Blue. The world has lost millions of men, women and children as a result of war. The word in Washington is that it is about time to begin saving life.

DISPATCH ADS BRING RESULTS

MEAT INJURIOUS
TO THE KIDNEYS

Take a tablespoonful of Salts if Back hurts or Bladder bothers—Meat forms uric acid.

We are a nation of meat eaters and our blood is filled with uric acid, says a well-known authority, who warns us to be constantly on guard against kidney trouble.

The kidneys do their utmost to free the blood of this irritating acid, but become weak from the overwork; they get sluggish; the eliminative tissues clog and thus the waste is retained in the blood to poison the entire system.

When your kidneys ache and feel like jumps of lead, and you have stinging pains in the back or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment, or the bladder is irritable, obliging you to seek relief during the night; when you have severe headaches, nervous and dizzy spells, sleeplessness, acid stomach or rheumatism in bad weather, get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning and in a few days your kidneys will act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate clogged kidneys, to neutralize the acids in urine so it is no longer a source of irritation, thus ending urinary and bladder disorders. Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink, and nobody can make a mistake by taking a little occasionally to keep the kidneys clean and active.

URGES POOLING WOOL

Crow Wing county now has several thousand sheep and the problem is to get the best price for the wool.

Fred Whipperman of Platte Lake believes that pooling the wool will pull bigger profits for the sheepman and the farmer carrying sheep as a side line. He quotes an article on the question by George Keppel of Iowa published recently in "The Farm Journal."

The latter quotes the condition of affairs in a community in Eastern Nebraska. "Every spring a wool buyer came into their community about corn-planting time and bought each man's wool for the same price. Some fleeces were better than others—enough better to bring higher prices. Some of the farmers who considered selling the fleece all at the same price an injustice organized to pool their clip and sell it as one big clip.

"All the wool was brought to one place where the buyers could bid on it. The wool was graded and the wool of each grade was sold separately; the best fleeces brought the best prices. The buyers paid more because there was more competition, and because they did not have to travel over the country to buy the little bit at a time. Meetings were held to show the growers how to tie and handle the fleeces. Two men who were hired by the people in the community did all the shearing on the farms where the wool was produced.

"It was not long until other neighborhoods in Nebraska tried the same thing. They pooled their wool and found that it paid. And if it paid last year when Uncle Sam bought all wool for the same price, it surely will pay better when there is bidding on the wool.

"Essex county of Virginia pooled 20,000 pounds of wool last year valued at 70c a pound. More than 45 farmers in Marion county, Mo., pooled their wool last year and sold to a local man for $6.710.16. Three counties in Idaho pooled 220,000 pounds of wool and sold it as one clip last year. The cost of handling the wool was .093 a pound; that is, 1,000 pounds were handled at 3 cents.

"The wool market is gradually righting itself. The manufacturers want to buy the wool just as cheaply as possible during this reformation period of the market, and they will do it if the wool growers do not stick together. If you do not have a wool marketing association, form one in your community, pool your wool and pull together for bigger profits.

MAKING WORLD SAFE FOR PEDESTRIANS

The Minneapolis police arrested 500 automobile drivers in one day, in violation of the traffic ordinance—driving on the wrong side of the street, parking in verboten territory, no dimmers, absence of tail light, and other minor infractions. Among those brought on the carpet was a former governor of the state and a former chief of police. The raid was educational and to strengthen the memory of auto drivers. Probably some of the men arrested were peeved, but they should be thankful that the police are trying to make the streets of Minneapolis safe for them.

WAR STRUCTURES NOW STAND EMPTY

THEIR FATE UNDETERMINED

Though Some Seemingly Are of Permanent Construction, All May Be Removed to Carry Out the Plan of the Mall.

By EDWARD B. CLARK.

Washington.—To Let—Some acres of floor space in temporary buildings erected in the city of Washington for the use of war workers. Comfortable in winter, hot in summer, but with a plentiful supply of electric fans thrown in for cool breeze purposes. Apply to Uncle Sam, sole owner.

Only recently it was written that Washington still is full to overflowing. So it is, but some scores of Washington's emergency buildings are as empty as the halls of Tara, and today their harp—the more or less musical type—writer is silent within the walls.

Visitors to Washington will not know the Mall, because only a part of the Mall is there to be known. The rest of it is covered over with three-story stucco buildings, a good many of them put up apparently for keeps, so solid are they in appearance and in reality. Thousands upon thousands of workers have been plugging away under the roofs surmounting the stucco for months and months, and today some hundreds, and in a few instances some thousands, still are laboring on the war and the aftermath of war tasks.

Many of these buildings, however, virtually are empty. Great reaching halls in the surgeon general's building at Seventh and B streets are like garrets in the deserted houses of summer. The officers and workers of the engineer corps, which has been occupying other buildings, are growing lonely because of the lack of the companionship of other days. The chemical warfare service laments the loss of officers, soldiers and civilian employees in great numbers. The ordnance department likewise is beginning to feel like Robinson Crusoe, although, unlike Robinson, it has several "Man Fridays" left on the job.

Some Branches Busy as Ever.

Certain branches of the army, and particularly those which are affiliated with the treasury department, still maintain their great corps of workers. The war risk insurance and the allotment divisions are as busy as they were when our troops were storming their way through the Argonne and to the eastward of that forest in an attempt to cut the Hun's army communications with Metz. In the main, however, the buildings have been emptied of a large part of their working forces. Some of them stand almost deserted and the problem is what is to be their future.

There were men who did not hesitate to prophesy that notwithstanding all the safeguards that were thrown around the Mall in the way of legislative restrictions, the day would be far distant when the great open space would be restored into itself. In other words, men feared that these acres of buildings, once erected, would be allowed to stand where they are through many long coming years.

Some of these government buildings in reality are built as if the intention were to let them stand for a century. It will be hard work to pull them down. It may be that the country will insist eventually that down they shall come, and that the grass, the trees and the flowers once more shall be given a chance to make glad the sites of the structures.

War Checked Splendid Plans.

Photographs of the Mall as it exists today have been taken from balloons. Some one has remarked that if the government could have put up buildings on the Potomac river it would have done so. The pictures show acres upon acres of roofs where once they would have shown acres upon acres of nature's unadorned products.

Man proposes and war disposes. It was the intention not only to keep the Mall open for all time, but to extend it so that no buildings should appear between Pennsylvania avenue and the Potomac river except the marble structures of the government showing white in their setting of green. War knocked all the plans into something worse than a cocked hat. Not only are the old structures which from time immemorial have lined Pennsylvania avenue on the southwest still standing, but back of them have appeared the drab office buildings put up for emergency government use. The place that was once in large part a park today looks like a mushroom town.

However, most of our troubles never happened, and so, perhaps, worry is useless. When the treaty of peace finally goes into effect and the league of nations either is assured or is not assured, it may be that congress will issue the order to raze the buildings whose corridors now send back a thousand echoes to the footsteps, and that the grass, the flowers and the trees once more will come into their own.

Japan plans to install an exchange that will receive wireless telephone calls from ships at sea and connect the callers with land lines.

SALVATION ARMY LEADERS DECORATE GRAVE OF QUENTIN ROOSEVELT

Colonels Barker and Parker Kneeling at Grave of Heroic Aviator Killed by the Germans.

Along the roadsides near Solssons, in fields of St. Mihiel and under the shattered trees of the Argonne forest, little white crosses reverently are being erected over grass-covered mounds that blanket American lads who gave their all to the cause of liberty.

During the days of actual fighting it was almost impossible to properly mark the graves for the doughboys moved ahead so fast no systematic method was possible, but now northern France is becoming studded with graveyards for over 60,000 American boys.

This movement had its inception with the Salvation Army, which early in the war took upon itself the task of locating the last resting places of the slain and sending back home a few flowers picked from them. The ladies frequently had to spend days in searching out the graves and consequently started the movement that has resulted in systematically marking and retopping them.

When the boys dropped from Boche shrapnel, shells or bullets, they were buried where they fell. If there was time a little wooden cross was placed as a headstone and the lad's name and regiment were carved on it by knife blades. If this could not be done a limb of a tree was stuck in the soft earth and the doughboy's tag hung on the branch.

These are being picked up and mailed back to his mother, sister or sweetheart and a pure white cross with black lettering, placed in their stead.

Soon congress will be asked to appropriate enough money to place stone crosses on all the graves and men will be appointed to watch over the sleeping and keep ever fresh the flowers and grass under which they rest.

The best known of the graves in France is that of Quentin Roosevelt, who fell in an air battle with two German planes. Colonels William Barker and E. J. Parker of the Salvation Army a few days ago held a memorial service for this heroic lad and reverently placed near the cross a bouquet of the first flowers of spring.

A MAN MAY BE DOWN BUT HE IS NEVER OUT

Salvation Army Serving Free Meals to Those in Need.

The Salvation Army has adopted a new slogan that epitomizes its work among those who through misfortune, moral weakness or too strong temptation are classed as "hopeless." To these "unfortunates" it says:

"A Man May Be Down, but He Is Never Out."

And a record of the army's labors in this country proves the correctness of the shibboleth. The extent of its endeavors is not generally known, for it works quietly, keeping its left hand in ignorance of the good deeds of its right. This policy has been pursued for years and would be in effect today were it not for the general demand that the Salvationists expand their field of operation and take over welfare work of all grades.

The following statistics will give an idea of the gigantic work, among men in this country, accomplished during the year just past:

She Finds Herself Much Better
 Lame back rheumatic pains stiffness and soreness in muscles and joints can be quickly relieved. Mrs. L. Wayne, 2726 3rd St., Ocean Park, Cal., writes: "I used to have pains in my right hip. Label for Poison Bottles.
 Perhaps the simplest of all devices for protecting people from taking doses from poison bottles by mistake is the sandpaper label. The actual label with usual skull and crossbones is pasted on a piece of sandpaper large enough to go all round the bottle, so that when you take up the bottle in the night, no matter how dazed from sleep you may be, rough, unfamiliar feel of the sandpaper rouses you and you recognize at once that the bottle contains poison of some description. The printed label will tell the kind of poison in the bottle.

GOV. WHITMAN TO HEAD BIG DRIVE

Accepts National Chairmanship of Salvation Army Campaign.

Charles S. Whitman, former governor of the state of New York, has accepted the invitation extended by Commander Evangeline Booth to become national chairman of the Salvation Army Home Service Fund campaign through which the Salvation Army hopes to raise $13,000,000, which will be devoted to the care of the poor and the unfortunate in the United States. It will begin on May 19, to last a week.

In her letter of invitation Commander Booth reviewed the manifold evidence of Governor Whitman's friendship for the Salvation Army in the past.

"The Salvation Army in the United States, mindful of your consistent and valuable friendship in the past, asks you now to become its national chairman for a Home Service Fund campaign which we are planning to hold in the month of May," she wrote, "and as a result of which we hope and aim to raise a fund of $13,000,000, which shall go to widen and deepen our service to humanity in this country in all the phases and channels with which you are so very familiar."

PLAYROOMS FOR KIDDIES PLAN OF SALVATION ARMY

Youngsters in Poorer Districts of Big Cities to Have Recreation Clubs.

There are days of pleasure ahead for the kiddies in the poorer districts of those cities in Western states that have not awakened to the physical and moral value of municipal playgrounds for the Salvation Army has taken up the task of establishing them.

This work is one of the most important of the new activities of the Salvationists whose field of endeavors has widened materially since the public awake to the importance of developing the welfare work of this organization both at home and in the war zone.

In the past the Army kept its light under a bushel, doing its self-appointed labors so unostentatiously, that only the recipients of its charity were aware of the good it was accomplishing. Now its place is in the public eye and with its growing power has come new tasks. Among them is the making of fine, true American citizens out of the wretched little mites of the slums.

Like all of its innovations, the playroom plan will be developed slowly and conservatively. It will be tested out thoroughly in all of its phases until a method of procedure, absolutely sound, has been worked out. Then the Army will spread its endeavors into every city where the need is apparent.

The playrooms, as now planned, will have swings, gymnastic apparatus, a place for the boys and girls to romp and a spot where table games can be played. There will be a fiasse to watch over the youngsters and maintain order. In time small clubhouses will be built where the children can rule supreme.

The Chicago municipal plan of operation will be the one followed, for it has proved its worth in directing the young ideas in paths of righteous living, making them of real worth to the world instead of shiftless and often criminal men and women.

SALVATION ARMY PULLS STUMPS.

Staff Captain S. Charles Isaacs, in charge of the Salvation Army Industrial Home for Boys and Girls at Luton, Calif., has found a new method of pulling stumps. Heretofore dynamite decorated them from the landscape, or the tractor would root them up with much gasoline and noise. Now he has found a method that requires only a 200-foot rope and a crowd of happy boys.

The rope is attached to the stump, the boys line up along the rope, the signal is given, the boys pull, and, piff! just like that, the stump comes out.

Recently two horses and a plow that fell into a well on the farm at Lytton were pulled out in the same manner.

"It works well and there isn't anything we can't pull by that method except teeth," said Isaacs.

PLANE AND CREW MISSING AT SEA

Fear Is Expressed That Commander Towers and Four Men Have Perished.

SCOUTING WIDE AREA

Battleships and Destroyers Are Searching for Machine Lost in an Attempt to Fly From Newfoundland to European Continent.

London, May 19.—Lloyds report that the steamer Ionia with the crew of the American seaplane NC-1 aboard, arrived at Horta Sunday, and that the NC-1 sank 120 miles off the island of Flores.

Washington, May 19.—Apprehension as to the safety of Commander John H. Towers, and his crew of four men, who in the seaplane NC-3 have been lost at sea for more than 40 hours, had begun to displace the feeling of confidence among naval officials that the trans-Atlantic fliers soon would be found by searching vessels.

No word had been received from the NC-3 since Commander Towers reported that his plane was off her course some 300 miles from the island of Fayal, Azores. Dispatches from Rear Admiral Jackson, aboard the U. S. S. Melville, at Ponta Delgada, Azores, said a gale was sweeping the seas northwest of the Azores and that high waves were running.

With the NC-4 at Horta, ready for the next leg of the trans-Atlantic flight, and the crew of the NC-1 safely aboard the Cruiser Columbia, the navy was bending all of its energies to finding the lost fliers.

Big Fleet Searching.
 Two battleships, the Florida and Texas and nearly a score of destroyers were scouting the sea over a wide area.

The fog which forced the NC-1 to the open sea a few miles off Corvo headland, the objective point of the aerial arconants, has been dissipated by strong winds which increased to a gale and whipped up a nasty, choppy sea, the most menacing condition possible for a seaplane riding on the surface of the ocean.

Using Corvo Island as an operating base, the screen of battleships and destroyers were sweeping westward in a semi-circle in an effort to catch sight of the NC-3, or pick up radio distress signals. The high winds and heavy seas made the work of the rescue party difficult.

LAST DINNER OF CHAMBER WEDNESDAY

Big Get-together Session to Follow
6:15 P. M. Meal—Clean-up of Business Matter Necessary

MONTHLY MEETINGS IN SUMMER

Chamber Will Follow Plan of Last Year—Cut Down Expenses
and—"Go Fishing"

Probably the last dinner of the Chamber of Commerce to be held this spring will be that scheduled for Wednesday, May 21st, the regular meeting night of the Chamber. At this meeting several matters of importance will be taken up for approval of the club, in order that the secretary may continue the work during the summer time, when it is so difficult to hold meetings of the Chamber.

It is planned to have the meeting at 6:15 sharp and members are urged to bring some one interested in club work with them, as their guest and remain to the meeting to follow the dinner. There will be no delay in service, as the cafeteria plan established by the club will be followed.

It is believed that the club will recommend that meetings be held but once a month during the summer and also that the rooms are not kept open late at night unless on special occasions, but that they be closed at 10 o'clock, as members prefer to enjoy the numerous outing privileges afforded in Brainerd and vicinity, and there seems to be no occasion to burn lights and run up bills during the summer months.

Up to Committees

The arrangements for different conventions and visiting autoists and business men have been referred to the proper committees and they are expected to carry these out. The Automobile committee will arrange for automobiles for the soldiers on Memorial Day this having been turned over to L. W. Sherlund, chairman of this committee. A. J. Hayes, cashier of the First National bank is chairman of the committee in charge of the details for entertaining the visiting members of the St. Paul Rotary club on June 6th. A special feature for the entertainment of these visitors and for the public in general is being worked out by the secretary and will be announced later.

Bring a Friend

Members are not only urged to be present at this coming meeting, but it is hoped that visitors in the city will be invited, in order that they may see how the community club of Brainerd is being conducted.

The club enjoys an excellent reputation throughout the state and the northwest as an active association for the betterment of the community in general and in order to maintain this reputation it is absolutely necessary that members attend such meetings as are called and take an interest in the work before them.

The House and Social committee will plan a good menu for Wednesday evening. Be there!

DR. W. C. HODGSON

First Methodist Church Con-

There will be a special meeting of the Methodist congregation on Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock in the parlors of the church, the occasion being the launching of the Centenary campaign of the local church. There are some very important matters to be discussed and it is expected that there be a large attendance.

Dr. W. C. Hodgson's presence will help insure unity and enthusiasm in entering into the big project of the centenary.

Card of Thanks

We wish to thank friends and neighbors, those in our vicinity and in Brainerd, for the kindness and sympathy shown us during the illness and the passing away of wife and mother, Mrs. Francisca Prosser. Your many acts of kindness will always be held in grateful remembrance.

NORWEGIAN HISTOTY REVIEWED IN DETAIL

Hon. Julius Schmal, Secretary of State, Spoke at Sons of Norway Celebration

MADE A PATRIOTIC ADDRESS

Stavneim, Secretary of Sons of Norway, Spoke in Norwegian to the Assemblage

The "17te Mai" was celebrated in grand style by the Sons of Norway lodge Saturday evening at K. C. hall. The big hall was filled to the doors by an audience to listen to a program replete with patriotic addresses, history of Norway and history of the local order, vocal and instrumental selections, concluding with most satisfying luncheon.

Hon. Julius Schmal, secretary of state, gave a history of Norwegian activities in peace and war from the twelfth century to date, from the Vikings to the men to today. The Norwegians of old were a world power which feared not to wage battle either with England, Russia or Germany, and the men of Norway stood four square for their principles and line of conduct.

At the conclusion of his address Secretary of State Schmal was given a regular ovation.

In Norwegian L. Stavneim, secretary of the Sons of Norway traced the history of the order, its growth in membership and the principles inculcated.

The evening as a whole was one of the most successful celebrations of Norway's natal day ever celebrated in Brainerd and reflected great credit on the committee having the matter in charge.

Helgoland.

Helgoland lies in the North sea, 40 miles northwest from the mouth of the Elbe. It consists of a steep, rocky plateau, 184 feet high, with a strip of fine sand at its southeasterly foot. Its area is about 123 acres. Kaiser Wilhelm is said to have expended $50,000,000 on the practical reconstruction of the island; it is fortified against sea and cannon alike with great granite buttresses 16 feet thick and 240 feet high on all sides. Even the fissures in its cliffs have been filled up and bound together with ferro-concrete—thousands of tons of it. The little island is wholly incased with a cemented belt of armor, fortified with modern ordnance.

TAG DAY RESULTS AND HOW ATTAINED

Mrs. W. H. Gemmell Reports on the Workers who Assisted in Coming Near the Quota

FOR COUNTY HEALTH NURSE

Kindly Cooperation of Ladies and Friends is Much Appreciated by Those in Charge

It is difficult to single out for special mention any workers who assisted to make Tag Day for the County Community Health Nurse such a glowing success. It is also difficult to enumerate all who took part and aided in the movement, the fear being that somebody may have been missed unintentionally.

Tying Tags

Mrs. Henry I. Cohen, Mrs. Polk, Mrs. Conrad, Mrs. Simpson, Mrs. Nor-din, Mrs. Frederick, Mrs. LaBar, Mrs. Spencer, Sr. and Mrs. Zapffe assisted in tying tags, also Miss Norma Grenwaldt and Miss Irene Schmidt.

General Interest Shown

The general interest throughout the city manifested in the work of a Public Health Nurse bespeaks for Miss Garrison most kindly cooperation when she begins her work in Brainerd. Miss Garrison's work is being received so favorably in the county where she is at work that success also is anticipated here.

About Mistakes

If any mistakes are found in the report please telephone 252 and they will be corrected.

Assisted With Cars

Mrs. Belse and Mrs. Burnett assisted with their cars not only on Thursday but throughout the week previously in preparation, distributing tags and boxes thus giving Mrs. Gemmell, chairman in Tag Day, invaluable assistance. Assisting at the banks were Mrs. Hawley, Mrs. Flenner, Mrs. Zapffe, Mrs. Belse and Mrs. Strout.

Block Workers

Miss May Whitley's box was not collected down town but in her section of the city. The work of the block workers should in no case be judged by the amount in the boxes. Some had a large territory, some a small one. The patrons of some were interested, others not so much so. A detailed report is given at this time as it has been considered more business-like to do so.

The work of Mrs. Smiley might be specially mentioned as she worked with enthusiasm practically all day and in the evening. Many others also far outdid their quota.

Two of a Name.

Two neighbors of a young couple who had been married but a few weeks were greatly surprised to hear untoldable sounds of quarreling between them. "Charlie," the young wife was heard to say imperiously, "if you ever come into this house again and muddle my carpets with your feet, back home you go!" "That's serious!" said one neighbor to the other, and they proceeded to discuss the question whether the young pair could live together another week. The next day, however, a curly-haired black pup was seen playing on the lawn of the new householders. "Charlie," the young wife was saying to the new pet, "I'm sorry I scolded you last night, but your feet were terribly muddy!"

Rubber "Biscuits."

In southern India a factory at which high-grade rubber is made resembles a dairy, the milky appearance of the latex adding to this illusion, as well as the precautions taken to insure absolute cleanliness. One of two methods of manufacture is generally adopted. If the estate is young and only a few trees are being tapped, the rubber is made in the form of biscuits or sheets. The biscuits are placed on racks in a airy room or an artificial dryer and allowed to remain there until dry. The finished biscuits are pale amber colored and transparent, and for this reason are popular on the market, for their purity and freedom from dirt can be judged by holding them to the light and looking through them.

LEAVE FIELD IN DISGRUNTLED MOOD

Crosby Players Refuse to Abide by Local Umpire's Decision and Pull Off Team

SCORE 3 TO 1 IN THEIR FAVOR

Umpire Hall Changed Decision on Base Running from "Out" to "Safe" in 7th Inning

Refusing to abide by Umpire Ed. Hall's change of decision on a third base play, Crosby in a matched game with Brainerd at Koering field on Sunday waved its men from the field and retired in the seventh inning with the score at that time 3 to 1 in their favor and Brainerd on the crest of a big drive for runs.

The whole proceeding simply emphasizes the need of a league where the decision of an umpire must be abided by and where protests can be lodged if need be and their merits settled by a board of directors such as the league will provide.

Previously in the game Crosby's umpire changed a "strike" decision to a "ball" and Brainerd abided by the decision of the umpire.

In the seventh Belfy made first on an error of third. Stallman drew a base on balls. Molstad fouled out. The ball touched the infielder's mitt when Belfy raced to third. The Crosby first baseman whipped the ball to third and it was gathered in while the runner had traversed about two-thirds of the distance to third.

Hall waved his arm and wigwagged an "out."

Attention was immediately called to him as he stood back of the pitcher that Belfy had not been touched. Belfy had continued on to third and made the bag and was not touched. Hall changed his decision and said, "Safe."

Swede Erickson waved his players off the field and that was the end of the game. Brainerd sat around for a time and then retired. By all decisions the game reverts to Brainerd 9 to 0.

Brainerd and other patrons of the grand sport of baseball can be assured that when the league gets into operation there will be no repetition of such cutting out of play because of any umpire's decisions. The game will go on to a finish and if there are kicks they will be adjusted by the directors at a later meeting and if necessary another game ordered played to adjust matters.

As to Umpire Hall's standing it may be asserted that he is one of the most satisfactory umpires in Central Minnesota and has been eminent-ly fair, giving satisfaction to Brainerd and Little Falls alike when games were played and no greater test can be asked than the ability displayed in such an encounter.

The Crosby team may think it showed spirit and independence to walk off the field, but in addition to the two teams playing, the rights of a third party are to be considered and that third party is the very necessary one of the spectators who do not relish such proceedings and who pay their money to see a nine-inning game and not one chopped off in the seventh inning.

Each team had used two pitchers in the fray. Brainerd had Hannan on the mound and he was succeeded by Molstad in the fifth frame. Crosby had Woock pitching six innings and put on Lewis in the seventh.

NORTHWEST NEWS

Athletic Carnival

Fort Snelling, May 19.—One of the biggest athletic carnivals ever staged in the northwest was staged for the amusement of Fort Snelling wounded here on Saturday. Veterans of the world war in wheel chairs and on crutches and canes were out for the big parade and the long program of athletics events arranged by Pal Brown athletic instructor at the Fort general hospital. Thousands flocked to the ground to witness the parade and the track and field events.

Lieut. Roy Gentry commandant of the Fort, and R. C. Buckley director of Military Relief led the parade.

They were followed by soldiers of the post and hospital patients who were able to participate. All the athletes jazz bands and relief organizations took part in the pageant which circled the parade grounds, that later served for the field and track events. Disabled patients were given places of honor in the "bleachers"—decorated with bunting and flags.

The Fort Snelling general hospital has hundreds of patients from almost every city and town in the northwest. Wounded from all the upper Mississippi valley states are sent to the hospital for recuperation before being discharged. Many of them declared it was the best day they had since they entered the army.

The entertainment was not limited to exhibitions of amateurs athletic skill. Every war relief organization represented in the Twin Cities was on the ground to see that the soldiers had a big time. From a Salvation Army hut—just like the ones the boys patronized "over there"—doughnuts and coffee were doled out. The Y. M. C. A. served cocoa and cookies. The Red Cross was on the ground with all kinds of eatables and so were the War Camp Community Service girls. The Jewish Welfare Board put up fruits and grape juice, while the Joan of Arc club served ice cream and cake. Knights of Columbus distributed cigarettes soft drinks, cake and cookies.

It was virtually a holiday in the Twin Cities with all returned soldiers and sailors invited to participate.

Optimistic Thought.

The desire of more riches is want. and want is poverty.

Irresistible Sand.
One of the most interesting and remarkable of the many regions for the observation of sand dunes lies between Bordeaux and Bayonne, in Gascony. The sea here throws every year upon the beach, along a line of 100 miles in length, some 5,000,000 cubic yards of sand. The prevailing westerly winds continue picking up the surface particles from the westward slope, where they are again deposited, and the entire ridge by this means alone moves gradually inland. In the course of years there has thus been formed a complex system of dunes, all approximately parallel with the coast and with one another and of all altitudes up to 250 feet. These are marching steadily inland at a rate of from three to six feet a year, whole villages having sometimes been torn down to prevent burial, and rebuilt at a distance.

For Bed, Board and Laundry.
Here is a perfect gem of misapplied English from a woman answering an advertisement for a French governess "au pair"; "I know a little English, and could give easy, at once, lessons in French, for which I will be nourished, lying down and bleached, who, I think, are the conditions 'au pair.'"—Boston Transcript.

IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE

The Advertisements Have Something to say to You

If a merchant or manufacturer could gather 5,000 or 10,000 or 100,000 prospective buyers into a large auditorium and talk to them daily—by word of mouth—he would have no need of advertisements. But he cannot.

So he puts his words in type and talks to these same prospective buyers each day in the printed messages that you know as advertisements.

In this newspaper today you will find many such personal messages from merchants and manufacturers.

Some are large and some are small. They cover a wide range of subjects. They are worthy of your careful reading.

No merchant or manufacturer would spend his good money advertising if his merchandise were not of good quality and fairly priced. It wouldn't pay!

Don't miss the advertisements. They'll save you money.

ADVICE IS THE MOST WORTH-LESS COMMODITY IN THE WORLD. THOSE WHO MIGHT PROFIT BY IT DON'T NEED IT, AND THOSE WHO DO NEED IT WON'T PROFIT BY IT--IF THEY COULD, THEY WOULDN'T NEED IT.
